"We've been to a private island in the Caribbean, a luxury home in Hawaii and an exotic villa in Mexico...and that's just in the last year and a half."

Go where you want to go.

What will it be? A villa on the Riviera? A chalet in Aspen?

In 1991, Trade to Travel pioneered the concept of exchanging privately owned vacation properties using a point system tied to market values. Today, we're the largest luxury vacation home exchange service with properties in 23 countries. Our portfolio includes numerous "Five-Star Diamond" properties and select small hotels that provide access to private golf clubs and luxury spas.

Endless beaches or snowcapped mountains. City streets or country streams. The choice is yours.

"Why travel to the same place every year when you can enjoy a variety of great destinations using Trade to Travel?"

Vaniene Hardy, President, RMI, Duck, NC

"PrivateShare combines the benefits of timeshare with the exclusivity of a private country club. We love it."

Peter van Dernoot, Founder, van Dernoot & Associates, Avon, CO

Do what you want to do.

Tee it up at Harbor Town. Carve a trail at Vail. Hunt down antiques in the English countryside or marlin fish off the Baja Peninsula. We'll take you there with PrivateShare,™ our unique program for exchanging availability in Trade to Travel members' private vacation homes.

Unlike timeshare, PrivateShare is for people who already own luxury vacation properties and want to unlock the value that is trapped in their underutilized real estate. For every week that you make your home available as a PrivateShare participant, you earn points that you can bank and use for future travel.
